Singing Soul is spontaneous, in-the-moment singing; the unveiling of our very uniqueness in melody, harmony, and rhythm...our stories, in words, and beyond them. By turns edgy, hilarious, challenging, and deeply moving, each moment is an original composition that is unrehearsed, precious, and irreplaceable. And as fate would have it, it's also profoundly fun! There's no wrong notes and nothing to memorize, just breathe and sing....ahh. The Singing Soul is for those who are ready to let go of "getting it right" and are ready to embrace letting it just happen.

Unrehearsed singing evokes the genuine and soulful voice. You'll strengthen your abilities as a vocal musician in creating melodies and harmonies, laying down vocal percussion grooves and bass lines, and gelling with others in creating freewheeling counterpoint that just begs a soloist - then becoming that too! Experience new roles and genres in your music-making. The synergy of improvisation inspires and empowers as singers discover utterly new terrain vocally, musically, and expressively.

David Hatfield is a singer, leadership consultant & facilitator specializing in creativity, communication & masculinity. He has taught The Singing Soul internationally since 1997. www.davidhatfield.ca
